

The security specialist has the solution to your vandalism problems with a complete line of full-security metal guards.

Shaw-Perkins Protection

Steel Smoke Detector Guards

(Model RSDG)

- Constructed of heavy gauge die-formed steel.
To prevent damage to the smoke detector due to vandalism.
- Does not interfere with detector operations,
- Installs easily.
Installs over your existing detectors without removing the devices.
- Proven reliable for more than 20 years
In penal institutions, hospitals, public housing and schools throughout the United States
- Variety of sizes
Fits your present detector.
- Keeps your fire Alarm program working.

Shaw-Perkins Protection

Steel Round Smoke

Detector Guards (Model RSDG)

Model No.	Diameter	Depth
RSDG-773	7"	3"
RSDG-774	7"	4"
RSDG-775	7"	5"
RSDG-776	7"	6"
RSDG-777	7"	7"

All measurements are taken from
The inside of the mounting frame.

Cover
16 Gauge perforated steel
(3/16" dia. Perforation on 1/4" staggered Centers) 51% open area.

Frame
3/4" x 3/4" angle 14 gauge solid steel.

Installation
Use Frame to guide to drill into ceiling.
Use 1/4" min hex head bolts with lead expansion
Shield or toggle bolts. Avoid plastic shields.
Place cover over frame; secure with 4 fasteners.

All guards are supplied with the following:

1. Guards fasten to mounting frame with No. 10/24 spanner head screws or pin head security head screws.
2. Standard: Cool Tan or White Gloss finish is optional.

Maintenance and Testing
Shaw-Perkins recommends routine cleaning of the Smoke detector and guards, so that dust and other matter do not accumulate.

Important:
Strength of final installation requires heavy, solid anchoring

200 Industrial Street, New Castle, Pennsylvania 16102